Rosemary Hunter came to the Foundation and had her preliminary test for the Million Dollar Paranormal Challenge. The test was conducted by Jeff Wagg who happens to be the General Manager of the JREF. The test was webcast in full and received a good number of viewers. We also taped the event on a separate camera for archiving puposes.

Prior to the test Rosemary was asked to sign the agreed upon protocol and was given further details on how the test would proceed. After agreement was made the test was underway. Rosemary looked calm and concentrated throughout the test never once opening her eyes the entire 15 minutes.

Jeff Wagg was communicating with viewers of the webcast via the Skeptic Rock chat room on his mobile device. He was cool, calm and rather dry the entire time. After the test Jeff mentioned that he felt no feeling of needed to use the facilities which Rosemary stated would happen during the testing.
